

LTC Robin Eskelson

Lieutenant Colonel Robin Eskelson enlisted in the U.S Army as a combat field medic in 2001. She received her commission from New Mexico Military Institute as a member of the Early Commission Program and branched in the Quartermaster Corps in 2003. Lieutenant Colonel Eskelson completed her Associate's Degree in Pre-Med while at New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell, New Mexico and attained her Bachelor's Degree in Health Care Administration with a minor in Science from Wayland Baptist University, Plano, Texas and holds a Master's Degree in Business Administrations.

Lieutenant Colonel Eskelson attended Quartermaster Officer Basic Course in 2005 followed by Advanced Material Delivery Officer Course (Rigger Certification). She completed Mortuary Affairs, Advanced Water and Petroleum Distribution Course, and Captain's Career Course (CCC) at Fort Lee, Virginia. Following completion of CCC she transitioned to the Logistics Branch in 2010. She attended the resident course of Command and General Staff College (CGSOC) Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. During her time at CGSOC Lieutenant Eskelson certified in DESCA operations, Homeland Security, Joint Planning and Red Team Planner. While serving with NATO Special Operations Headquarters she completed NATO Logistics Planning Course, NATO SOF Staff Course, LOGFAS, and Joint Combined Warfighting School (JPME PHII). Lieutenant Colonel Eskelson is officially Joint Qualified with completion of her Joint Tour at NATO SOF HQ, SHAPE Belgium.

Lieutenant Colonel Eskelson's unit assignments include 297th BSSB Platoon leader, Fort Richardson Alaska; CL III/V/VII OIC BSSB Fort Richardson Alaska; Mortuary Affairs Officer, Joint Personnel Effects Depot, Aberdeen Proving Grounds Maryland; S-3 OIC Joint Personnel Effects Depot, Aberdeen Proving Grounds Maryland; Military Transition Team Advisor, Baqubah Iraq; 5th Quartermaster Parachute Rigger Detachment Commander, Rhine Ordnance Barracks, Germany; 95th Military Police Battalion, Battalion S-4, Sembach Kaserne, Germany; Security Forces Assistance Team S-4 Liaison, Camp Sabalu-Harrison, Afghanistan; 18th Military Police Brigade S-4, Sembach Kaserne, Germany; 101st Special Troops Battalion Executive Officer, Fort Campbell Kentucky; 101st Combat Aviation Brigade Support Operations Officer, Fort Campbell Kentucky; J-4 Head Operations Officer, NATO Special Operation Headquarters, SHAPE Belgium; Training and Exercise Chief G3/7, 21st Theater Support Command, Panzer Kaserne, Germany.

Lieutenant Colonel Eskelson's major awards include a Bronze Star with 2 oak leaf clusters, Defense, Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Ribbon with 3 oak leaf clusters, 1 Army Commendation Medal with Combat Device. Also awarded Basic Parachutist Badge, Parachute Rigger Badge, and Air Assault Badge.

She is married to Mr. Jonathan Hennes and have one dog named Gunter.